

THE TIMES

A DAILY NEWSPAPER

Vol. I

Limon, (C. R.) Wednesday December 7th 1910

No 17

"The Times."

Ghost and prosper the works of your hand.

Or again :

With this sword do justice, and so faithfully serve our Lord Jesus Christ in this life that you may reign for ever with Him in the life which is to come. The Lord your God endue you with knowledge and wisdom, with majesty and with power from on high.

It is not-worthly that the focusing of our thoughts upon this great symbolic act happens at the very time when some of the problems it suggests are greatly exercising the mind of every thoughtful Englishman. It is the merest truism to say that the Twentieth Century has found the English people looking at their Empire in a way they never looked at it before.

Suffragettes

It is reported that the Premier Mr. Asquith, has yielded to the importunities of the Suffragettes. He announced in the House of Commons that if he were in power at the next session of Parliament, the Government would introduce a bill which would give facilities for the consideration of a Woman's Franchise Bill, so framed as to admit of free amendment.

The Daily Times.

We this morning publish a part of an article on the "Coming Coronation," by the Most Revd., the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, England, which we feel sure will be of interest to all readers of the paper.

The coming Coronation by the most Rev. The Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"Probably no small number of the people whose thoughts turn at last to Coronation Day are looking on it simply or mainly as a great holiday pageant. Now, of course, the pageant and the processions, the pomp and show are merely incidents or accidents surrounding—most appropriately surrounding and emphasizing—the central act. The essence of what takes place is the religious rite when the sovereign is anointed, and vested and crowned. The great act is rightly called the "Sacrificing" of a king. It does not make him king, he is that already; but it declares beyond doubt or cavil in the name of the English people, and by the voice of their foremost Religious Officer, that the nation will have its king consecrated as Christ's servant, and will thus declare, in the most solemn and public way that can possibly be devised, its corporate allegiance to the king of kings. Again and again that principle of fealty to Christ is enumerated in the actual wording of the service.

Be you anointed, blessed, and consecrated King over the people whom the Lord your God hath given you to rule and govern. Our Lord Jesus Christ a pour down upon your head and heart the blessing of the Holy Spirit.

It is reported that the Tailoring establishment of Mr. Samuel McGee of Siquirres was broken into, during the past week. The thief was found and arrested, through the identity of a pair of pants. The man's name is Raimundo Castillo.

Arthur Gutzmore had to go.

Arthur Gutzmore a well-known member of the Union left yesterday by the Prinz August Wilhelm. As a patriotic person he had to say farewell to Costa Rica.

What is the trouble with the Union.

The man about the streets wants to know, what is wrong? They are holding meetings, taking stock, calling in cards, etc. When will the "Mighty" return.

LOOK OUT!

The General Manager of this newspaper promises to place before the Public an illustrated Xmas number of the paper. It is presumed that a paper of that sort will be the first that has made its appearance. It will be nicely and tastefully got up. The papers of the winners of the Christmas Competition will be published in that number.

News came to hand that St. Johns, New Brunswick, Canada is in need of a Dry Dock. Sir Montague Allan in an interview on the matter, expressed his opinion that sooner or later a Dry Dock will have to be built. St. Johns is one of Canada's greatest shipping ports. A large number of steamers, all the year round, stop or call at the port. If at any time one of these steamers should become disabled, there is no way that she can be repaired in the Dominion.

Marconi achieved a wonderful success in transmitting a wireless message.

He received at the new station at Col'vano near Pisa, wireless messages from Grace Bay, Nova Scotia and Massowal on the Red Sea.

This demonstration was carried out in the presence of the King and members of the Government.

Monday night's Tragedy.

Arthur Evans, Antiguian aged 22 years was shot on Monday night by Edward Joseph a Haytian. It is supposed that the outcome of this was because they had a quarrel on board one of the Banana boats.

It is reported that Mr. Harry Richmond DePass Vice-Consular Agent, immediately called the Doctor and they both rendered every possible assistance to the unfortunate man. The thanks are due to these two gentlemen for their kindness and help to the man. Evans died afterwards, the shots being fatal. The Police were very prompt in being on the spot, arrested Joseph who is now in jail.

SHIPPING NEWS.

The Prinz August Wilhelm left on Monday evening with 154 Deckers for Colon and Kingston, and 51 Cabin passengers.
