St. George's Chapel Windsor.

This noble building is known all over the world for its magnificent splendour and stately dig. It was built by King Edward IV and he lies there buried, as does also his predecessor. Henry VII. Henry VIII completed the Chapel and built the so-called Tombhouse, part of which is, however, of the inhonour of Edward the Completed the Chapel of St. Edward to Cardinal Wosely, who had a magnificent tomb of black Marble made for himself. This was stripped of himself. This was stripped for himself. This was stripped and fits ornaments at the Commonwealth and was finally sent to St. Pauls Cathedral for the funeral of Nelson.

Of Wales.

In the month of July next, Carnarvonshire will be the scene of great magnificence, when the King's eldest son is to be "invested" Prince of Wales, at Carnarvon Castle. Wales being so largely non-conformist, it is being discussed whether the services will be so arranged that anglicans and free-churchmen can unite in a common act of worship On the occasion of the Diamond Jubilee of the late Queen Victoria, it was remarked sne recognized her Scottish Chaplains, that in Scotland the court worship is a Presbyterian Church and so it is thought probable that the Welsh non-conformist therefore, will find their place recognized in this great united act of national thanksgiving and dedication. It is also presumed that the Bishop of St. Asaph, the senor prelate, will take the lead, and that associated with him will be some of the prominent leaders of the non-established churches. By this a grievance will be prevented, and for once the rare spectacle will be seen of a solid nation imploting the heavenly blessing upon its young Prince. Beyond that it should be a means of drawing to-gether the people in the principality. people in the principality

The - Cyclone.

Italy has been once more visited by a cyclone. Messina and its terrible earthquake was passing off our thoughts, when a huricane passed along the coast of Amalfa with wide-apread and lamentable devastation. Whole towns have been wreck-Whole towns have been wrecked and at least three hundred lives lost, while thousands more are homeless and destitute. The Italian government with the utmost speed hurried on to the relief of the sufferers, and the king and queen, true to their reputation, were soon on the spot. Italy knows its rulers well, as to friends and succourers of their people, and tender hearts in other lands had moved to compassion and help.

A Cricket Match.

The monotony of Limon was held on the 8th broken by a held on the 8th broken by a Cricket Match being played on the old Ball Ground between a team of 8t. Kit's Labourers and combined Eleven of Linon The ALL WEES went in and scored 70 runs for 11 wickets and of the combined team 7 men were out for 40 runs. It is said that the Combined Eleven behaved unanotrabilities or is said that the Combined Lie-ven behaved unsportmanlike on the ground. It is necessary that they should in future be more sportsmanlike. Great credit is due to Patois Johnny for putting up this match and act as Captain.

Our Christmas Competition.

With the first issue of the paper, it affords us pleasure to be able to announce that in order to create interest in the paper among all sections of the community; we are in a position to offer a few prizes to be competed for in connection with our Xmas number.

For the first competition we are authorised to state that two prizes, a first prize of £15.00 and a second prize of £5.00 will be given for the best essay on the subject. "What sort of wife would you wed." In regard to the essay we are asked to say that due thought must be given to the "character, mental and moral qualities and not the physical appearances of the woman." The Paper not to exceed 500 words.

For the second order of £10.00.

For the second competition two prizes, a first prize of £ 5.00 will be offered for the best C. D. Brooks.-ESTRADA.
