Criticised

The Editor of the Times

The Editor of the Times.

To apply it to Eden, ito angels, and to heaven, is ridiculous non sense. Adventigis trake a great alo ove the fact that the ten commandments were spoken by God's voice, written by his fingers, engraved in stones and placed in the ark. 'Why, ask they, was it thus kept separate, if more proniment than the rest of the law if We answer, the ten commandments were written, by Moess in the book of the law along with the other precepts, see Exodus 29 and Deuf. 5. They were included in the book of the evenant which was sprinkled with blood, and waight Paul says, was taken away and abolished that Christ may establish the second or new coverage of the second or new coverage or new coverage or new cover and abbission that chirst values in the land of Canadan see first, fourth, and fifth commandments. These cannot apply to gentile christians who were never in Egypt. The first, fourth, and fifth commandments. These cannot apply to gentile christians who were never in Egypt. The first, fourth, fifth, eventh, and ten commandments cannot apply to the augels in heaven. It was customary at the time of the giving of the law, that, when a soleun coreuant or agreement was entered into between parties, some object was seelected as a witness or testimony of the saine. I will cite a few examples: Jacob set up a pillar as a witness of the warmples of the saine. I will cite a few examples: Jacob set up a pillar as a witness of his vow to God. See Gen, 28, verse 18 when Jacob and Laban made a covenant they took stones and hade a heap. An I Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day, Gon. 31, verse 43 years are shelled of the solution of the tables of stone to be always kept as a witness or testimony of that agreement. Hence they are called the tables of Testimouy, that is, witness, Ezodus 31, verse 13, so the Taberra-cie was the Taberra-cie of Testimouy, that is, witness, Ezodus 31, verse 13, so the Taberra-cie was the Taberra-cie of Testimouy, that is, witness, Ezodus 31, verse 13, so the Taberra-cie was the Taberra-cie was the Taberra-cie of Testimouy, that is, witness, Ezodus 31, verse 13, so the Taberra-cie was the Taberra-cie was the Taberra-cie of Testimouy, that is, witness, Ezodus 31, verse 13, so the Taberra-cie was the Taber

ay. Another thought right here ; away.

Another thought right here; the Decalogue of necessity was only a railford law for Israel and temporal in its obligation, because the penalty for its violation was stoning to death. "He that despised Moses" law died without mercy under two or three witnesses." Heb. 10, 25 v. Adventists admit that the penalty of the Liw was abolished at the cross and this admission proves that the law itself ceased there too; for the law with a penalty is annulity. But as a last effort these crafty preachers cry if the Decalogue is no longer in force, then there is nothing to condemn crime such as adultery, idolatry, etc. This is another man of straw that the fire of truth will consume. The new Testament does condemn these idolatry.—"Little childron, keep yourselves from idols" 1 John 5 and 21, "Neither be ye idolaters 1 Cor. 10, v. 9, "Where-fore my dearly beleved free from idolatry."

Adultery—"Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the Kingdom of God". Be not deceived, neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with man kind, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the Kingdom of God, 1 Cor. 6, 9-10.
Theft—Steal no more Eph. 4, 28 x

Lying-"Lie not one to another" Col. 3. 9 v. All liars shall have their portion in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone Rev 21, 8 v. Murder-Nounderer hath eternal life abiding in him, 1 John

3. 15 v.
Covetousness —Let it not once be named among you, Eph. 5. 3 v.
Covetousness, which is Idolatry,

Caretousies.

Col. 3, 5 v.

The new testament forbids not only the evils condemned in the Decalegue, but also scores of others and mentioned in that code, such as drunkenness, love of others not mentioned in that code, such as drunkenness, love of pleasure, pride, anger, impatienze, aelikahness, ousting, filthy talk, evil thoughts, foolishness, nucleanness, strife, hatred, envying, reveilings, etc.

Thus it became necessary to supercede the Decalogue and all that cluster around it with the New Testament, which is a better evenant, established upon better promises.—I am, etc.,

A Good Suggestion

To the Editor of the Times.

To the Editor of the Times.

Sir,—Permit me the privile ge of expressing myself re the item of "Coronation Fand" which appears in the columns of "The Nation." In the first instance it app as so very strange that while we have among us. His Britanule Majesty's Vico Consult other Scotchmen. Englishmen, and even Cauadiuns was navebasen privileged to enjoy the Irne feelings of loyalty, in that, they have been reared in the immediate vicinity of royalty and its surroundings, therefore in a position to speak of loyalty to King and Crown, we find Mr. Garray of "The Nation" who has only lived in the faith of the existence of a royal personage coming forward in promulgating a scheme for elebrating as occasion which others who glaim a prior right to do, seem to have elected to pass by. I find that in his 43rd issue he has a uthorised a programme for the day, without even cading a public meeting of the interested Britishers as he calls us, to decide such matters as to whether we shall march from the Vice-Consul's office to the Anglican Church or from the "Sea Wall as he designates, why so, is left to be heard. Has the Lion takes up his abote in the cool vicinity around the Sea Wall? If se, I hop Dr. Siegzall's residence will be his hanut. Again he mentions the co-operation of such holies as the Limon Literary Association, and the Friendry Societies whereas up to this he has not got their consent to act, I therefore for feel it might be well that he render unto Cassar thous these mentions the nonernot consent to act, I therefore for feel it might be well that he render unto Cassar thous the subsection.

that be Caesar's by i sisting that that be Cassar's by issisting that the Vice-Consul amout act, and along with him the Excitation of the community, then the Colonials will be asked by them to cooperate and I am sure here would be a hearty response; when one is seen that the propie who ong at to lead here have taken to the seen that the British Ublony of Costa Rica should be lead by "In Nacion" or its Editor, would be so undignifying that "the least said the sooner mended."

Of course I would like the Editor of "The Nation" to understan I that I am not taking him to task for his ambition nor real in his logal devote leases to Crown and Empire, but to the contracy must admire him for andeavouring to rouse the Englishmen and their Cassal, to their some of obligation and trying to teach them that they ought or offuse in the must of the indig to teach them that they ought or offuse in the minds of the indig to teach them that they ought or offuse in the minds of the indig to teach them that they ought or offuse in the minds of the indig to teach them that they ought of fast in any that grant lear and diply which is claimed for Old Englant. If they are as any of old $1 the nation who has appreciated puticision to be Treasurer to the fault and take carge of the chair, but in the mentaling I feel that our tism to be Treasures to tas fatalian I take carges of the chair, but in the meantime, I feed that our Vice-Consul or pro Consul, whoever he may be, ongar to interest himself as did Me. Wood at the last Coronation. Let him call and preside at every public meeting and receive all subscriptions, which "The Nation" will ack or be described by the Consultation of Coronation festivities will be worthy of us. Otherwise, I shall be sad.
