Port Limon, Costa Rica (C. A.)

SUNKEN BAND-STAND.
The centre of attraction. This will seat 3,000 people, and around it is 2,000 feet circular parade. Soft, in width, and one can imagine what a charming resort this will be, when, on a summer's evening, the band of the Coldstream Guards is playing, and the City of elegant buildings gleam with a myriad lights.

Upon the football ground will be given demonstrations of life in Austria upon the sports ground will be held Imperial sports in which teams of athletes from every part of the Empire will take part, while the cricket ground has been turned into a veritable rus in urbe. Country life Section and here will be a model homestead, a small farm cow sheds, piggeries, poultry runs, dairy rooms, cheese and butter-making factories, an egg-collecting depot, market gardens, and an orchard.

More than ever will the Crystal Palace be the play ground of the people, for an endless array of popular and novel amusements has been established and is already in full working order.

Upon a specially arranged ground edged by gigantic scenery and by Sir Aston Webb's Amphitheatre to hold 10,000 people will be held the Pageant of London and Empire in which 15,000 voluntary performers will take part in thirty-two scenes. For eighteen months Mr. Frank Lascelles, the master of the Pageant, and an army of workers, have been engaged in the preparation of this important of all Pageants. Tan dresses, properties, armour, arms, and scenery have cost nearly £30,000, while in every case historical correctness even to the most minute detail has been insisted upon. Many ladies and gentlemen of title are taking part in some or other of the scenes and the whole batch of performers will be assembled on May 12th to be reviewed by the King and Queen.

Part of the Pageant will be devoted to episodes connected with our Overseas Dominion, and the climax will be reached by the grand Imperial finale, the Masque of Empire.

Other notable features of the Festival of Empire will be superb gardens, a £40,000 collection of old English curios, six hundred specially selected paintings by modern British artists, an exhibition of child life, a gallery of photographs forming an Empire Album, and a stand containing two million pounds worth of diamonds.

These there will be a camp of Imperial Cadets, Naval and Military tattoos, a gigantic Carnival, an Open Air Concert, when 20,000 people will sing together, battle of flowers, flower shows, a parade of British giants, and firework displays.

Proposed Custom House Changes.
It is on good authority that a very influential employee of La Aguana, Limon, is concerned and corresponding with San Jose officials in bringing about a change in this part concerning the entry of parcels and small consignments to the extent value of £15.

He is of opinion that the agencies of the shipping lines should cause a protest to be made out and that such addressed packages be allowed to be cleared by various owners without suffering any loss or seizure as now exists, or they having to go to any despatching agency have cleared.

There are in all 10 miles of roads in the Palace grounds and each an every yard will have its interest.

In addition to many kiosks there are ornate buildings to be used as Club houses, Cinematograph theatre, Bank, Naval Exhibition, Post Office, Irish Cottages, Big Ben, farmstead and so forth.

It is said that the case is being watched with great interest, and revelations are sure to follow if it is defended.

In answer to a letter sent by the Coronation Committee to His Excellency the Governor, Jamaica, asking that the 22nd and 23rd June be observed as public holidays, the acting Colonial Secretary replied saying that His Excellency the Governor has considered the matter and said he objected from the London "Gazette" that His Majesty has issued his royal proclamation appointing 22nd and 23rd June to be bank holidays and public holidays throughout the United Kingdom. He proposes to proclaim the 22nd and 23rd June as public holidays under the Public Holidays Law for the parish of Kingston and the 22nd only, throughout the island.

Long Felt Want.

Mr. Jacob Delvalle, who resided in San Jose some years ago, and I where he was a partner in a commercial house known as "Delvalle and Sasso" has just arrived here for the purpose of opening a branch to the Banking House of Sasso and Pirie, San Jose.

The established reputation of the house is speaks for it a large share of patronage, and as there is much room for such a banking house, we feel certain the businessmen of this thriving town will hail the opening with pleasure. Mr. Delvalle has a wide knowledge of the republic and know its necessities, hence the launching of this branch firm ought to prove a decided success.

In addition to the banking house the branch of Sasso & Pirie will have the Agency in Limon of the important Insurance Company, which is as follows: "The Imperial" of Canada; "The Insurance Company," Scottish Union of London.
