Obituary.

We have the painful duty of recording the death of Don Manuel Brenes, Administrator of Customs of Limon.

This sad event took place at 10.30 p.m. on Wednesday. The old gentleman had been suffering for several days now from an acute attack of Pneumonia and the doctors did all they could to relieve him, but from the start, they had very little hope especially considering his age. The entire family along with some of his friends left for San José with the corpse by special train on Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock.

The Public Administration has indeed suffered a severe blow by the death of Don Manuel. He has been one of those Public Servants, who did his duty conscientiously up to the letter of the law as far as duty was concerned, he regarded the rich man or the corporation no more than he did the poor man who stood beside him and he always resented harshly any proposition to encourage him to deviate from the regular path. The law was his guide and despite everything else, he insisted that the law said so and so. He was always very mindful of his subordinates and protected them against all comers when they were in the right, but when wrong, he never spared the rod of chastisement. He had his enemies because he was a strict business man, and would not regard any request more than another, no matter by whom; however these are the sort of men we want here in public service. Would to God that we could always find more Don Manuels to be our Governors, Civil and Criminal Judges, Postmasters and Administrators of Custom, we would be certain to have impartial dealings.

The Times begs to extend its sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

A new Ship.

The s.s. Bencliff, Captain A. S. Hanson of 2210 tons, arrived here on the 31st inst., with 3449 tons of coal for the Northern Railway Coy.

This boat is a novelty to Limon in consequence of her peculiar shape, she is what is called a turret deck ship, so built as to avoid the measurements going through such places as the Suez Canal, where the tolls were chargeable by deck measurements. This is the second boat of her class that has visited Limon. They have ceased building this class of ship within the last few years. There was an accident on board on Wednesday night, one of the workmen got a hit from a coal bucket in the head which bled profusely, but he is not seriously hurt.

Personal.

We understand that Dr. Stegall will be here in a week or two.

Mr. Benjamin Piza was also a passenger by this boat. The Times welcomes back to their homes, all these travellers.

Mr. John Fraser of Beverly Commissar and Master Felix Rivers, son of Mr. Arthur Rivers of the Telephone Department of the U. F. Coy. were also passengers by the Prinz Sigismund from Jamaica.

We are pleased to see our friend Mr. Saml Babb again out among us. Mr. Babb had been ill for several weeks, but through the skill of Dr. Vasquez, he has been brought around once more.

Dr. Vasquez himself has been very ill, but we are proud to see him convalescent. Dr. Vasquez is the poor people's doctor and in all cases of difficulty he has been so painstaking with those in distress that he has won the love and esteem of the entire class.

Among the list of passengers by the s.s. Prinz Sigismund was Mrs. Alexander Canton and her two younger daughters Misses Tula and Emma Canton. The Canton family will be remembered as old residents of Limon during the revolution in Nicaragua, but on the fall of the Zelaya Government, Mr. Canton returned home and is now Minister of Fomento in his native land. We wish the ladies a pleasant stay in Costa Rica.

Italian War.

OFFICIAL REPORT

An official communication referring to the Dardanelles cannonade, says that a flotilla of torpedo boats, "while pursuing the enemy's torpedo boats, or for the purpose of reconnoitering," made a dash into the Dardanelles. Although detected by search lights fired on by the forts on either shore, they pushed on until they discovered enemy's fleet was protected by steel cable obstructions. They were thus prevented from delivering a attack on the Turkish warships anchored in the Straits.

"The Italian flotilla," says the communication, "receded in perfect order despite the heavy fire of the forts reaching the Aegean Sea intact thanks to the enemy's bad gunnery."

Admiral Viale in a wireless report on the raid of the Dardanelles by Italian warships says: "On the night of July 8th, the torpedo boats Spica, Centaure, Astore Clemente, and Persee crept unseen through the opening to the Dardanelles, but were discovered before they had progressed far inside. Dozens of search lights flashed on the torpedo boats and the Turkish forts opened a hot fire. The flotilla, however, continued to steam on at the rate of 21 knots in close formation, hugging the European shore. When they reached Kuld Behr, the Spica, which was leading, ran into a steel cable. She disengaged herself but soon ran another. The search lights then became so dazzling that it was impossible to steer any course and Commander Mille decided to retire. This was effected in perfect order."

LIMÓN, (COSTA RICA) SABADO 3 DE AGOSTO DE 1912

Nota de duelo

No conocimos a don Manuel L. Brenes sino en las postrimeras de su vida, pero nos han dicho tanto de él quienes saben de su fecunda labor en beneficio de su patria, ya por haber sido sus compañeros en las rudas faenas del trabajo, ya por haber sido sus colaboradores en más altas esferas, que nos hemos forjado de su vida algo como una leyenda bíblica fantástica acaso como todas las que se transmiten de generación en generación, sin haber perdido nada con el transcurso de los siglos de su prístina poesía; fantasía que ha venido a revestir todas las formas de la realidad, porque no es difícil reconstruir la vida de un hombre que en su ancianidad ostenta levantada la frente, franca la mirada, abierto el corazón, discreta la palabra; era así la venerable figura del patriarca bíblico, era así también la del patriarca, que cansado de las fatigas de la vida, la ha abandonado para siempre.

Su paso por la Aduana de Limón marcará época en la historia de esa importante rama de la Hacienda Pública, y su labor organizadora, que no fué comprendida por muchos, podría haber sido más fecunda si no hubiese encontrado obstáculos de variada índole en su desarrollo. Muchas de sus reformas, comentadas y criticadas en corrillos y aún en las columnas de periódicos locales, fueron implantadas a pesar de eso, y sus resultados benéficos para la buena marcha de aquella oficina, han venido a probar que sus planes eran razonables y acertados; en ese camino habría podido ir muy lejos.

Para cumplir sus planes comenzó una obra en la cual tenía puestas todas sus ilusiones; el hermoso edificio que para oficinas y talleres de la Aduana se está construyendo en uno de los sitios más pintorescos y más adecuados del puerto, la entrada del muelle.

Dios no quiso concederle vida para verla terminada, pero quiso inspirarle la idea de edificar él mismo el monumento que perpetuase su memoria, a la orilla de ese mar que rompe sus olas al pie de la gigantesca obra, que dominará con sus ruidos el de los obreros del trabajo, y que dirá siempre con cañón el nombre de quien puso la primera piedra.

Escribimos estas líneas sin mirar hacia adelante, sin aspiraciones de ningún género, sin adulaciones, sin prejuicios. Al trazarlas, hemos visto atrás, admiramos al hombre activo, al luchador incansable, al probo, al íntegro ciudadano. Nada podemos esperar de él, que hoy goza el premio merecido y anda lejos, muy lejos, de donde tanto lo hicieron sufrir mezquinas pasiones. Le debíamos sincera estimación, y ya que en vida no pudimos presentarle francamente el testimonio de la nuestra, quedarán estos renglones como un eco débil, pero franco y espontáneo de la pena que embarga nuestro espíritu.

El país ha perdido uno de sus buenos servidores; sus amigos un corazón siempre abierto, su familia... lo ha perdido todo! Descanse en paz.

Comentarios

Llegaron de Nueva York, después de un largo viaje de recreo, las señoritas Tula y Elena Cantón, acompañadas de su señora madre, doña Dolores de Cantón, les deseamos una grata permanencia entre nosotros.

—Regresaron de San José las señoritas Céspedes. Las saludamos.

—Las calles de Limón son un desastre. Las lluvias han arrastrado con la poca arena, casualidad puso en ellas, la aplanadora y el macadam son para nosotros algo así como el secreto terrorífico que dice la esfinge a los incueros nómadas que se acercaron a parar cerca de ella y a interrogarla.

Las dos aplanadoras con que cuenta la Municipalidad de Li-món, están arrinconadas quién sabe dónde, y en tanto, las calles de la población van tomando la forma de inmensos pedregales, por los cuales no hay automóvil ni bicicleta que se aventure a transitar.

Convencida de esto, la Municipalidad ha procedido al arreglo de ciertas calles, haciendo la casualidad que la primera elegida sea la calle á que dan freno las oficinas de la United Fruit Company.

Nosotros preguntamos: ¿por qué se ha dado preferencia a esta calle, y no á la avenida central, que está en peor estado y que tiene indudablemente muchísimo más tráfico?

No queremos creer que los señores de la alta Corporación estén pensando, y lo que es más grave, creyendo á estas horas, que son lo más ilustre y lo más digno de consideración los graves zapatos que ensucian las am-plias avenidas de Nueva York, y que se truecan por arte de magia al venir á estos suelos en calzado finísimo...

El Club atlántida

El Club Atlántida se despeza después de su letargo sajón; entre las llamas del último incendio se quedaron sus alas, como el insecto alado deja las auyas en su eterno arriposo en derredor de una bujía.

El Club renace.

En sus salones donde el tiempo y el olvido tejieron sus telarañas de silencio, bate sus alas un despertar de vida; en el aire, saturado d'suaves perfumes d' Houbigant y Coty, rima la orquesta las cadencias de un vals; las bocas femeninas ríen, húmedas todavía por las gasas de uive que dejara la espuma del champaña.

El despertar del Club da vida á la alegría social, como la savia da vigor á las plantas cuando la primavera desliza por los campos su carrosa de flores.

La primavera social inicia su reinado en los campos aristocráticos. Felicitemos á los que con su constancia y con su empuje han dado vida nueva al Club; reconozcámosles su trabajo, y luchemos con ellos para que germine la buena semilla que tan desinteresadamente han sembrado.

A través del Canal

Una de las más poderosas compañías de navegación por la costa sudamericana del Pacífico, la "Compañía Sudamericana de Vapores," está haciendo los preparativos necesarios para habilitar seis grandes buques que harán la travesía de Valparaíso á Nueva York, por la vía del Canal de Panamá. Esta noticia demuestra claramente que la República chilena se da cuenta cabal de la importancia que reviste el Canal, y se propone estar lista para aprovechar en debida forma las ventajas y oportunidades que les ofrece. La expresada compañía recibirá una subvención del Gobierno chileno. Por ahora piensa construir dos vapores de 10,000 toneladas que anden diez y seis milas por hora y luego construirá cuatro más de las mismas dimensiones ó más grandes, que comenzarán á prestar sus servicios cuando se abra formalmente el Canal de Panamá, ó poco después de su apertura.

Estos buques deberán hacer la travesía de Nueva York á Valparaíso en unos diez días.

Un Cónsul que no cumple

Aludimos al señor Cónsul de Costa Rica en Jamaica.

Enca gados de la defensa del señor Robert Francis en la causa que en el Juzgado del Crimen de esta ciudad se le sigue por homicidio, dentro del término legal pedimos la prueba ultramarina que fué acordada; y previos todos los requisitos legales se le remitió al expresado Cónsul el respectivo exhorto para su debido cumplimiento; sin que, a pesar de tres meses que han transcurrido, haya cumplido la comisión; la razón ó excusa que expone es: que él es Cónsul ad-honorem, que no devenga sueldo; y por consiguiente no cumple lo que se le ordena, de ese modo, si no se le "re-numera" su trabajo.

Por motivos de reciprocidad es práctica entre todos los Gobiernos, tratándose de materia criminal, y conforme á lo que se haya convenido á este respecto, cumplir las comisiones que ante ellos se hagan, por medio de sus Ministros, Delegados ó Cónsules, de manera gratuita, es decir sin ninguna clase de estipulaciones acerca de honorarios.

Esto debe saberlo nuestro Cónsul en Jamaica.

Si cuando se le pidió el nombramiento, ad-honorem, se hubiera fijado que por esta condición lo serviría sin sueldo, antes que aceptarlo para hacer ostentación consular en parte diplomática para satisfacer su vanidad, no ha debido aceptar lo y en tal virtud lo mejor que pueda hacer es presentar su renuncia.

Preguntamos: ¿Por qué no lo hace? Porque no sea gratuitamente desempeña ese puesto, en atención á que son muchos los derechos que cobra por derechos de embarques, desembarque etc.

Son valiosas las relaciones mercantiles entre esta República y aquella Isla; y muy grande de la colonia jamaicana en esta provincia, por lo cual llamamos la atención al señor Ministro de Relaciones Exteriores para que se remedie el mal nombrando nuevo cónsul con su respectivo sueldo; y así se evitará el acto de descortesía que acaba de hacerse con nuestra Suprema Corte de Justicia quien hizo la remisión por lo cual se remitió el exhorto. —Limón 2 de agosto de 1912.—E. A Debate.

On Thursday evening Aug. 1st a most enjoyable evening was spent at the rooms of the Limon Literary and Friendly Association, when the Debate which was announced to take place, came off, the topic being: "Is our boasted civilization a failure?"

Mr. S. Paddyfoot led in the affirmative backed up by Mr. W. S. Alvarenga while Mr. G. E. Robertson answered in the negative, unfortunately Archdeacon Robinson was indisposed and could not attend, hence Mr. F. C. Wynter, 1st President of the Association introduced the speakers and asked the Revd. G. C. Trott to occupy the chair. Mr. Paddyfoot endeavoured to show that civilization had failed in its mission because it had not brought man to look at his brother man as a brother indeed as was evident from the amount of strife and confusion which continually goes on among us, quoted the difference in races, he also cited the war-like preparations for man's destruction, as well as the proficiency in arts and sciences as practiced by the Greeks and Egyptians which he claimed has been unsurpassed by modern artists and which have always been looked upon by the civilized world as treasures of great value. He quoted the perfections in morals and characters as practised among the savages ending up by proving that civilization had brought on more diseases and sickness than were known by the Savage.

Mr. Alvarenga strongly backed Mr. Paddyfoot's statements and proved that the methods adopted in tearing away the savage from his home and selling him in foreign markets as slaves tended to help to prove our civilization a failure, for even the barbarian believed in a higher being and at that he was more sincere than we are at present in our religions, he corroborated Mr. Paddyfoot in everything that civilization of today is a failure.

Mr. Robertson on the other hand argued that it is incredible to think that anyone could argue that civilization has not benefitted humanity, for if even the means adopted to rob the savage from his home be crude, yet the results proved for itself that they benefitted by being brought away. He divided his discourse in two heads that of material Civilization and that of Social Civilization, by material civilization he thought that the improvements in inventions and appliances have been so overreaching in their effects that he wondered that any lunatic could dispute the facts, even in warfare, he proved that God Almighty himself instituted war fare among the Jews who are the only race on earth that were never at any time in History considered savages, yet God went with them to war and assisted them, hence it was a necessary evil, but even at that civilization has improved the means by affording you instant death rather than mutilation by a spear, a battleaxe or being tramped under a chariot. By social civilization he proved that the march of modern days has brought us to that stage of courtesy to each other, that he would like to ask the audience or the gentlemen in the affirmative whether they would like Murder at Panama.

Colon, July 23. Clifford Bannister, the one-time pugilist of Colon was murdered at Panama on Wednesday night last. From what we learn the deceased was friendly with the wife of another man, the woman having left her husband about six months ago. It is reported that on the night the murder was committed, the husband stealthily entered the room, unseen by any one and hid himself under the bed. He waited his opportunity and when Bannister and the woman were sleeping he came out from under the bed and, with a razor it is said, opened the left arm of Bannister from the shoulder to the wrist.

The alarm was then given but before help could be got for Bannister he bled to death. The police were promptly on the spot and arrested the slayer whose name is given as Allen. Both men are from Barbados.—"Co. on Starlet."

Notice

W. H. Hall has been appointed Collector and Reporter of the Times Subscribers and Advertisers are therefore asked to hand all cash to him, upon presentation of bills.

to leave their comfortable positions and go back to Saragery. No said they, then, civilization is not a failure. He argued at length on Historical facts and other matters touched on by the affirmative.

Mr. Levy then read a paper as to what he thought civilization had done for mankind, he was enthusiastically applauded. The Chairman then summed up and elucidated such points as humanitarianism as existed from time immemorial and will always be throughout the ages that man will stick to his companions in classes, etc.

He then put the matter to vote which was negatived by an immense majority, who agreed that civilization is not a failure.

Ice Cream and Cakes were then served, and the young men amused themselves with Ping pong nine pins, drafts, music and other amusements, and the visitors seemed to have thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The only disappointment was that the gentlemen did not invite their lady friends, these are the sorts of places that the young ladies ought to attend, rather than dances and useless functions, but they seem to feel an aversion to respond to the invitation to such debates which would help to make them better companions in their homes.

We hope that at our next meeting the ladies will be in evidence, and feel that it is good to have our Association.

Current Items

A man was bitten by a venomous snake on the beach near North River a night in last month whilst on the watch for turtles in that vicinity. He died 24 hours afterwards in severe agony.

How fearful is the harbour at Cabuta, it is so perilous in landing cargo and passengers—the seas are so tempestuous in that region. Three men left in a small boat from the beach to embrace the opportunity in leaving on the Government launch for Limon when unfortunately the boat was capsized and one was drowned. The body has not yet been found, except the remnants of his blue shirt that he wore was seen on the beach—evidently he has been eaten by sharks.

Persons leaving Limon to Bocas del Toro on foot, via Sixola cannot pass the guards on the beach without showing passports; the same is also exacted from persons coming from Bocas. This is a wise idea!

ECHOS OF THE SHOOTING.

Circumstances arise at times which of themselves are such delicacy that one refrains from passing an opinion, but when it comes on a matter of public importance, we feel bound to close our eyes to the sentiments of individual feelings and do our duty to public welfare.

From what we can gather, the evidence that is before the Courts relative to the shooting of Mr. Gerald McCutchen by S. Lacayo, is of such a nature that the accused is expected to be acquitted very soon. Now however much we may feel for the unfortunate young man in custody and particularly for his family connections, yet we do not feel it is just to the public to set such a man at liberty for some time yet. We feel the British Vice Consul or Consul ought to interest himself in this matter and if our information be correct, he ought to enter a protest in the liberation of this criminal insane. We feel sure that if it was an American subject that was shot, Mr. Donaldson would not so soon have the offending party walking side by side with us in the streets without doing everything possible to have him placed if not in the Penitentiary, in a place made for criminal insanes. Apart from considerations for the life of the unfortunate victim, why, for the safety of the public, this man should not be set at liberty on the plea of insanity until he had spent several years in confinement and to the doctor's satisfaction after careful scrutiny that he is perfectly sane.

We hope our Vice Consul will thresh this matter out so as to put a gem to his crown, so when his retirement takes effect, (if ever it does), that we may be able to reflect on the good things he hath done.

Sanitary Disputes

A peculiar case has come under our view, whereby an Inspector of Hygiene has been embargoed by a Syrian lady in the market because acting under orders of his chief, the doctor, he broke two barrels which he claims were contrary to regulations, not having the necessary wire meshing. These barrels are said to have been reported to the doctor on different occasions and the owners sent down to him, but no fine was apparently inflicted, seeing that owner made no attempts to amend the conditions of the barrels he broke them, hence the lawsuit. His pay has been levied on and the doctor is alleged to have expressed himself as not having anything to do with this. The inspector thinks that the suit should be against the Sanitary Department and not him, he has protested the levy and issued a suit against Senora Luisa Solomon for 90 colones. We now await the doctor's evidence. It is said that another inspector without reporting the circumstances, to Dr. Caspedes condemned about 300 lbs. beef for Don Carlos Saborio as not fit for human food and dumped it. The protest of Don Carlos may be well imagined, it is expected this also will come up for hearing in the Courts, whether these officials are responsible, or the Sanitary Department is, for the orders given them, are matters to be solved within a few days.

Emperor dead.

Mutsu Hito, Emperor of Japan died at midnight on Monday last in the Imperial Palace at Tokio.

He was 59 years old, being born on 3rd November 1852. He has been the most adored sovereign on earth by his subjects. His son and heir Yutshi Hito has been proclaimed Emperor in his stead.

Kidnapping

Two little girls of good society of 10 and 11 years of age respectively, were stolen from their parents in Cartago and taken to Paraiso.

The perpetrators of the deed has however been caught and lodged in jail, one of the children got away and gave the alarm, hence his capture. The children have been examined and found that they have not suffered any violence. The reason for this act is engaging the attention of everyone there.

Scriptural Enquiry

Mr. Editor:

Pr.—Permit me space in your valuable paper to answer to an enquirer who asks me to prove that the Kingdom of God was not set up at Pentecost. To this I answer that though John the Baptist preached the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand, it was the King himself who said in St. John 18, v. 36: "My Kingdom is not of this world," and in another place said: "Satan is the God of this world." Instead of the Kingdom set up at Pentecost it was the King himself in departing told His disciples that though he would send the holy spirit a few days hence, (which we believe came at Pentecost) in John 16, v. 33 said: "In the world ye shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer I have overcome the world."

The Church at present therefore is not the Kingdom of God set up in power and glory, but in its incipient embryo condition. And so, indeed all the expressions of the New Testament with reference to it teach, the Kingdom of Heaven now suffers violence at the hands of the world, Mat. 11, v. 12: The King was maltreated and crucified, and whosoever will follow in his footsteps shall suffer persecution and violence in some form.

This it will be observed, is true only of the real churches and not of the nominal churches but the promise is held out that if now we (the Church the embryo Kingdom) suffer with Christ, we also in due time, when he takes to himself his great power and reign, shall be glorified and shall reign with him. 2 Peter 1, vs. 10, 14 Rev. 2, v. 10, Rev. 3, v. 21. Let us then earnestly pray: Thy Kingdom come Thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

The Commission.

By the Gazette of the 27 July we find the Commission giving their report. The principal items of their report are that Mr. Mullins came to his decision that there was no more than 600 stems of fruit weekly that was not contracted to the U. F. Co. by the fact of his shipping 577,506 stems of fruit in the month of May of which 575,180 were under contract hence there was only a balance of 2326 not under contract, but in June he got 3875 not under contract. Whereas Mr. Wetmore said he had promise of fruit from producers having under cultivation 1161 hectares of land hence calculating 10 stems to the hectarea he saw he had 11610 stems.

They say several complaints have been lodged against the United Fruit Co. by the farmers for losses in receiving their fruit. They seem to feel also that there has been stolen fruit delivered to the Atlantic Fruit Co.

However, they feel that these tenants occupy lands even though those lands are contracted they are not liable for those contracts except they themselves sign to respect them. The full report will follow in our next.

At the Baptist.

On Thursday evening there was an Emancipation meeting held at the Baptist Mission. The Revs. Pitt and Gas, pole assisted the Rev. Forde. They lectured on different topics relative to Emancipation, but the most amusing incident was when an aged man as Teacher from 12 miles named Lewis asked our ministers of religion. "If we have any tell us what they have done to help the cause of Emancipation from the time slavery was abolished?" Mr. Forde quietly folded his hands and admitted that they had done nothing, he was ashamed he said but they had to admit that they had done nothing.

Mr. Gaspolo waxed warm and grew great and expatiated all the good things that had been done by religion for the coloured people from the time of the Emancipation. It seemed so strange to think that a coloured minister could say that religion of its ministers had done nothing for the race since emancipation, surely he could not have been in the pulpit to be asked such a question had it not been for the good done to the race.

It's nobody's business what we put in our paint, of course; but we want it known. For lead-and-zinc and linseed oil, ground together by machinery are the stuff to paint with; and lead-and-oil mixed by hand is not.

We want it known that one word is Devco.

Are you going to paint?

Yours very truly
