Rule Britannia

When the Canadian Parliament voted the new warships as a contribution to the Imperial Navy "we are told that members and spectators joined in singing "Rule Britannia," says the "Clarion" "and Sir Wilfrid Laurier had to wait for some time before he could continue his speech. The incident was a creditable one, not so much because of its patriotic display as from the fact that so many loyal subjects were acquainted with the words of that spirited song.

Most people know the chorus but how many are they in England who can repeat the verses!

Ungrateful Murderer.

The "Gleaner" publishes the following:

A murderer named Vernet, who was under sentence of death at Calous, is furiously angry with President Fallieres for having reprieved him.

When the governor of the prison entered Vernet's cell and informed him that he would not be executed, this murderer protested vigorously against M. Fallieres' clemency, and threw a tin plate at the governor's head.

He declared that he was tired of life and of existing social conditions, and that he desired to send a petition to the president praying that he be guillotined. Vernet afterwards attempted suicide.

New Premier.

Tokio, Japan, Feb. 12.—Count Gombie Yamamata definitely accepted the Japanese Premiership this morning and immediately took over the duties of his office. Rioting of an extremely violent nature occurred last night at Osaka, resulting in several charges by the police with drawn sabres. Many people were injured. The cause of the outbreak was the breaking up of two meetings by the police.

Lost in the Clouds.

A young French airman, M. Marcel Desoutter had an extremely exciting experience in the clouds a short time ago. He started a flight from the Hendon aerodrome at 3.40, and rose in half a gale of wind to a height of about 1500 feet. He went off in the direction of Barner, and was expected to return in about 20 minutes.

It was not until 7.30 that the airman walked into the aerodrome. It appears that after leaving Hendon at 4.30 he reached an altitude of 3500 feet, and then lost his way in the clouds. After circling, he saw a sheet of water, which he thought was the Welsh Harp, so descended to 500 feet, and decided to land.

Reaching a field, he made a good descent at 4.45, but found that he had wandered to Cuffley, some miles north of Epsom. Desoutter had been in the air 65 minutes.

Big Theft of Gold.

Vigo, Spain, Jan. 29.—A case of gold containing 100,000 marks, bound from Riode Janeiro to Berlin, has strangely disappeared while en voyage, from the strong room of the German liner "Capitano."

The cause is enveloped in mystery. The door was undoubtedly opened by means of a duplicate key. The captain, when he noted the loss, notified the authorities here and the ship on its arrival, was surrounded by police and Custom House hunches, to prevent any possibility of the gold being taken from the vessel.

A thorough search of the vessel was then made, but it was fruitless. The missing gold was one-tenth of a shipment from Rio to Berlin.

What 'Punch' says.

"We understand, says Punch of the 22nd ult. "that the appointment of Sir Sydney Clivier—musician, dramatist, poet and essayist—to be Permanent Secretary to the Board of Agriculture is partly due to his having written a capital "Ode to Spring," which showed no little knowledge of weather conditions."—Gleaner.

Notice.

The Board of Education, claiming to own part of my properties in Limon originally known as "El Redeo," has sold certain portions, as well as taken an advantage, in an offensive manner, of my rights. I hereby advise those to whom it may concern that I do not recognize any action which the Board of Education may take on my property; and that I have already established the respective lawsuit in order to protect my interests. Those tenants who have failed to make their regular payments for rent, on account of the pretended action of said Board are to have these amounts paid if they want to avoid the consequences of judicial procedure.

Mikado's Coronation.

It is freely rumoured, said the "Gleaner" of a recent date, that the coronation of the Mikado will take place in November. This is supported by the fact that the Royal Household in Tokio and Kyoto are already making active preparations.

The "Jiji Shimpo" learns from private authoritative sources that after the coronation the Emperor Yoshihito will visit Europe in fulfillment of a long-cherished wish. He will make use of a warship.

Suffragettes Mobbed.

London, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst and some other women were mobbed at Croydon when they arrived there for a meeting last night by a crowd whose mails had been damaged by the suffragettes when they poured acids and paints into the mail boxes. The suffragettes were only saved from rough treatment by the opportune arrival of the police who had been hurriedly summoned.

IMPROVEMENTS OF LIMON.

Anyone looking around may not be led to conjecture that Limon has really been built on within the last fourteen years. Formerly it was only an immense swamp, where one had to walk on planks to avoid getting up to your waist in mud, but due to the keen foresight of Don Rafael Yglesias, Limon is what it is today.

Don Rafael was not slow to see the great possibilities of Limon, hence he set about quickly to make a contract with Mr. Keith for levelling up the town and building streets, sidewalks and sewerage, and ever since then Limon has been on the improve, in spite of the many fires that have been the means of destroying the houses at intervals, yet the people who own the lots have been determined to rebuild and see that no hindrance can deter the spirit of improvement and betterments of their lots.

A few years ago no one would have thought to worry about even taking a lot of land up at the Arnold's Town which is now giving so much trouble to all the settlers on that land, and so Mrs. Arnold in particular. It is well known what troubles the Board of Education has given her in trying to claim these lands, but those troubles seem to be past, but we hear of new intrigues to claim these lands by heirs of some Peter Williams, Anna Forbes or Robert Campbell, the next of kin of these people, but particularly of Anna Forbes, who is said to have died leaving no offspring to her husband, is supposed to be the true owner of these lands, which in consequence of the settlements on them is valued at half a million dollars. We have heard of some enormous bribes by certain parties to certain lawyers and certain parties have even gone to Jamaica to lock up the relatives of these parties, all because the value of the lands today have so increased as to cause all sorts of business propositions to be made.

If any of the relatives of Anna Forbes will communicate to this Journal, they will learn fully of the above which may mean thousands of dollars to them. Such incidents are the consequences of the improvements of any place and Limon is no exception; and not alone has the town of Limon prospered during this time, but the entire province. We find parishes being outlined, governed by their own Municipalities. There are the Municipalities of Squirres and Guapiles with their attendant strides in civilization.

We have an elaborate pamphlet, with a complete census of the parish of Squirres, compiled by Don Pablo Boza, Secretary of the Municipality of that place after a most painstaking and minute survey of all the farms and villages of the locality, which proves the improvements in that section of Limon, giving it as possessing 1336 residences and 8,925 inhabitants, with 74 farms giving an area of 10,717 hectares of bananas, 85 hectares of cacao 1871 heceter as of pasture lands and yielding 266,670 stems of bananas, and the Municipality reaps a harvest of 7,284 colonies as revenue derived quarterly from her different rates and taxes, hence our readers can readily appreciate the improvements that have come in progress since the last fourteen years since the U. F. Coy. has been organized and settling in

Conductor Nanne

We note that Mr. Richard Nanne has taken up once more his duties as Conductor on the passenger train. He left for a vacation to the States and on his way back he came down through Salvador and Guatemala. On his way down through Guatemala he had the experience of seeing a brother conductor Mr. Linke an American stabbed and killed by a native because conductor Linke demanded a fine from the passenger. Mr. Nanne had to take charge of the train by consent of the Engineer and Breakmen. His first duty was to catch the murderer tie him and deliver him to the first Police Station along the line and conduct the train to Barrios where he boarded the steamer for Costa Rica.

This occurrence must have brought a thrill through the heart of Mr. Nanne to see that his brother conductor should have been killed for the very thing that he so often demands in Costa Rica on his train.

Let us hope that this will be a warning to our conductors here, as sometimes this fine is exacted whereas at other times one is being told that the rule is amended, and there are times when one rushes up to a station just in time to take a train without being able to go to a ticket office. In such an instance it comes very hard on a passenger to be made to pay a fine. While on the other hand there are some people who are very rude in trying to explain themselves and when spoken to are awfully insolent, such recourse cannot go unpunished but there are times when some of our conductors seem to feel that they are not set there to use any discretion in such matters.

Estrada Note.

The Railway Authorities have built a fine shed at Estrada in which passengers are supposed to wait for the train but they might take it into consideration and place a bench of some sort on which passengers may have a seat while waiting for the train.

Let us beg Mr. Mullins to be a little more considerate for the feelings of the travelling public.

Big time for Adventist.

Elder H. C. Goodrich, President of the West Caribbean Conference of Seventh Day Adventist arrived here on Thursday morning from Colon to make final arrangements for the 6th Annual Session of the above Conference to be held in this town, beginning on the 5th of March.

The War in Turkey

London, Feb. 12.—A despatch from Constantinople to the "Daily news and Leader" sent via Odessa, pictures the position at the Turkish capital as becoming more extraordinary every day. Business is dead and many commercial houses have become bankrupt. The street cars stopped running long ago. Most of the steamers plying on the Bosphorus were seized for Enver Bey's expedition, and cholera is prevailing in the Asiatic shore.

Fires occur daily. During a fire in the Topouch section of the city yesterday, probably started by prospective rioters, there was little attempt made to check the flames except by foreign sailors. The Turks did not seem to be disturbed about it and continued to smoke away peacefully in the cafes while the British raged furiously. Even a terrible explosion in a house which was fully of ammunition created only a mild interest.

Bananas at Auction

New York, Jan. 31.—Subsequent to April 1, the United Fruit Coy. will sell all their cargoes in New York under the auction system, instead of as at present setting the market price according to the Coy's views of the market situation. This is, of course, a big innovation, and while a great many of the trade think it a good thing that the United fell in a line with the other Companies and sell at auction, and believe that by their doing so the market will be steadied and a more uniform basis of values established, there are some others who believe that the old plan had its advantages, and that under its working, the buyer got the full benefit of market conditions prevalent at the time.

There is also talk that the United intend to abolish the giving of brokerage, and that the Atlantic and the Cuneo Importing Coy. will follow suit. Under the plan at present prevalent, the brokerage of 5 cents a hundred is paid. Many of the banana brokers say that the cutting out of the brokerage will work a great hardship on them because their trade has always been accustomed to their representatives in New York getting their brokerage from the selling end and, and it is going to be an almighty hard job to get the interior buyer to come around to paying the brokerage himself.
